FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cornelius, NC - Frank Kimmel wants something desperately from Toledo Speedway, and this Sunday there may be no racer in the country that can stop him. Kimmel just turned 49 years old two weeks ago (4/30) and the competitor inside him burns for the feeling of victory he has felt a record nine times at Toledo Speedway.

The ARCA Racing Series presented by Menards returns to Toledo Speedway this Sunday for the Menards 200 presented by Federated Car Care. All the stars of the Series will be on hand but for Kimmel, this half-mile asphalt oval is extra special, for it's Toledo Speedway that gave the nine-time ARCA Racing Series Champion his first start in the series in 1990 and his first win in 1994.

"Toledo Speedway is a special place for me, especially when you consider I scored my very first win in the ARCA Racing Series there back in 1994. It's a track that just came natural to me and I always look forward to racing at Toledo," commented Frank Kimmel.

Kimmel will be driving the Roush-Yates powered No. 44 Ansell-Menards Ford this weekend and his chances of returning to the place he desires most, Toledo Speedway's Victory Lane, seems very possible coming off a third-place finish on May 1 at Salem Speedway.

Activities for Frank Kimmel begin with two Menards store location visits on Friday, May 13, as the driver is set to sign autographs, pose for pictures, and even offer a special promotion to store customers. Kimmel will appear at the Oregon Menards store near I-280 - 3100 Brown Road - at 4:00 p.m. He will then visit the Holland location off of Airport Highway - 7001 Orchard Centre Road - at 6:30 p.m. Each appearance will last 90 minutes. Store visitors can take advantage of a special promotion at either location, simply by purchasing a pair of Ansell gloves inside the store. Those purchasing Ansell gloves inside Menards will receive a voucher for a free second pair of gloves, personally handed over by Kimmel outside the store.

"Visiting any Menards location and hanging out with the fans is really fun. Plus, the Menards employees are always nice and you can really see their dedication to service and quality. I have two fantastic partners in Menards and Ansell - nothing would make me happier than winning my tenth race at Toledo for them," concluded Frank.
